He was convicted of having committed house breaking and theft and sentenced to 7 years R.I. under Section 457 I.P. and 5 years R.I. under Section 380 I.P.C. The two sentences were ordered to run concurrently. He has completed 6 years ~~11 months~~ & 17 days including the remissions earned & the unexpired portion of the sentence being 10 months & 13 days as on the 23rd. November 1940. The people of his place and the Dist. Superintendent of Police of Tinnevelly D.

He has only to serve out about 11 months of his sentence. His case deserves a better ~~consideration~~ but he has had a number ~~of~~ previous convictions, & the people of Dindigul, near where he comes, are not in favour of his release. It is better that he is released, for, a concession shown to him may have a psychological effect on his mind, & it may do him good. But before we can release him, we have to consult the Madras Govt. in the matter.

Subject.—

Release of long term convicts on probation.

The Standing Advisory Board, Central Jail, Bangalore, their meeting held on 23rd November 1940, considered the case of eleven long term convicts and recommended the release of s of them, viz.,

(1) Putte Gowdana Mara, No.1249
(2) Sheik Ahamed, ... No.1466
(3) Linga, ... No.2189
(4) Alagireswamy, ... No.9953
(5) Abdul Jabbar, ... No.2169
(6) Abdul Khader, ... No.3628.

As the convict Alagireswamy belongs to the Madras Presidency, is proposed to consider his case after ascertaining from the Government of Madras whether they have any objection to the c victs residing, on release, within the Madras Presidency and not, whether any conditions are to be attached to the permiss to reside therein.

The convict Abdul Jabbar was convicted of having commi rape on a young girl 10 years old and he has also one previou conviction. I am of opinion that his case is not a fit one f release and that he should serve out the sentence in full. Si larly, convict Abdul Khader should also serve out his sentenc full, in view of the fact that he is a habitual criminal havi a number of previous convictions.

The other three convicts are proposed to be released, cepting the recommendation of the Board. They are all long t convicts undergoing sentence of transportation for life for having committed murder, but they have undergone two-thirds of their sentence and their conduct in prison is satisfactory. District Magistrates are prepared to appoint probation office for their after care and the District Superintendents of Polic and the people of the village concerned are in favour of thei release.

The Dewan and the Second Member of Council have agre release of these three convicts on probation. I so the gracious sanction of His Highness to the proposal.
